THE SAMIRA GAUDREAU ART FUND

In tribute to Samira Gaudreau, a talented and artist, the Vanguard Foundation and the Clinique des yeux de Laval have joined forces to offer a unique opportunity to young artistic talent from Vanguard School.

The Samira Gaudreau Art Fund aims to perpetuate her legacy by supporting young artistic talent in their expression and development through art.

In addition to the annual competition, the funds raised will contribute to the realization of art projects at Vanguard School, specially designed for students with severe learning disabilities.

ABOUT SAMIRA

From the age of six, Samira began creating artworks, already revealing a raw, natural talent. By the age of fifteen, her artistic voice had fully emerged, bringing to life deeply expressive creations reflecting her unique spirit.

Her profound artistic sensitivity and ability to convey emotions through her paintings made each piece vibrant and harmonious. Samira left a lasting impression on those around her, inspiring others with her witty mind, distinctive style, and luminous presence.

STÉPHANIE GOULET: MENTOR AND CHAIR OF THE JURY

As a paint artist, Stéphanie makes a living from her art, devoting herself to painting buildings for private individuals and businesses. ADHD, she testifies that what was perceived as a challenge in her youth has become, over time, a source of boundless creativity. Honored to be able to support the project as mentor, she will also chair the jury, ready to contribute her unique perspective and expertise. To find out more about Stéphanie: gouletart.com
